

March of Dimes Canada Social Media Guidelines

March of Dimes Canada (MODC) is pleased to provide a social media forum for sharing and interacting with others. The viewpoints, opinions and actions expressed in comments are those of individuals themselves, and may not reflect MODC's policies or positions.

Our goal is to provide an online community where people with all kinds of views, theories, and concerns can express themselves, can share information, and can interact with one another in a respectful way. Any messages or stories shared on this site may be used in MODC marketing activities.

Please review our online social media guidelines regarding your responsibilities and MODC's responsibilities in this social media forum.

Be respectful: It is okay to disagree with others but insulting individuals will not be tolerated. Comments that use obscenities, personal insults, ethnic slurs or other disparaging language will be removed.

Protect Your Privacy: Comments on our social media platforms are visible to the general public. Protect your privacy and don't give out personal information such as email addresses, telephone numbers or street addresses. Doing so may make you susceptible to unauthorized communication or to spam. MODC will not verify personal information posted by others, including any information about an individual's personal support or care plans with MODC. Read MODC's privacy policy <link here>

Link to Other Web Sites: MODC is not responsible for the content of any linked website, or any link contained in a linked web site. The inclusion of any link does not imply endorsement by MODC of that web site. In addition, please be aware, that MODC is not responsible for the privacy practices of such other web sites. MODC encourages you to read the privacy statements of every web site that requests personal information from you.

Violation of Social Media Guidelines: Users who persist on violating our social media guidelines may be barred from posting to this site.
