

Protection (Privacy) of Client Personal Information

Purpose

March of Dimes Canada (MODC) collects personal information for a variety of purposes including the delivery of services, fundraising, quality management, research, billing and meeting legal and regulatory requirements.

MODC utilizes several safeguard measures to protect personal information and keep it confidential and will not share any personal information with any third parties unless it is directly related to the delivery or enhancement of the services that MODC provides or unless a Canadian law requires it.

Personal information that is no longer required to fulfill the identified purposes will be destroyed, erased, or made anonymous. MODC has guidelines and procedures to prevent unauthorized access and to govern the destruction of personal information

The full MODC Personal Information Protection (Privacy) Policy is available on the MODC website or by request.

Consent

I fully understand the reasons March of Dimes Canada (MODC) has requested my personal information and I give consent to MODC to use my personal information for the purposes outlined. I also understand that I may withdraw my consent at any time, subject to legal or contractual obligations and reasonable notice, and that MODC will inform me of the implications of such withdrawal.
